

THE GLOBAL PEAK WARRIOR ...

MUTAMILSELVI NARAYANAN, B.C.A.

About me

I am the first woman from Tamil Nadu to stand on top of Mount Everest and conquer the Seven Summits, the tallest peaks of all seven continents. I also hold the record as the fastest Indian woman to achieve this legendary feat in just 2 years and 25 days.

But my climbs were never just about records they were about breaking fear. Every step I took on those mountains carried a message: fear should never decide the limits of our lives. My mission is to ignite courage in others especially women to face challenges head-on, take bold leaps, and achieve victories not only on the world's highest peaks but also in their homes, careers, and dreams.

With courage, discipline, and determination, I believe no summit is ever beyond reach and I live to prove it.
